God is Still in Control! (Really!)

I recently read an article on the website, 'American Thinker,' entitled... 'God is in control but we must act.'

The writer, M.B.Mathews, begins with: 'My friends have been telling me to stop worrying, that God is in control. I know that, but I cannot help but worry and wonder what to do if Democrats win in 2024. Or even this November...'

He then goes on to list the litany of evil which is the modern Democrat Party: taxes, deliberately inflated gas prices to force mandated Electric Cars, destruction of Health Care, borders thrown wide open, planned confiscation of firearms, destruction of Private Property, homeless, drug addicts and mentally ill forced into every suburb, the soon coming proscription of Christian and Jewish proselytization but never of Muslim, the destruction of merit-based hiring in favor of only minorities, He continues, 'Some Christians believe we should "Let go and let God." I find that crushingly cringeworthy. It says, "You don't have to do anything." Committed Christians know that sloth and inaction are deadly...' Really!? Inaction is deadly? Inaction is exactly what God sometimes requires: In Exodus 14, as the Egyptians were pursuing the newly liberated Israelites and their position was completely untenable; surely, they were about to be destroyed. God, through Moses, commanded all the people, 'And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you today: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them again no more forever.' Ex 14:13 By the way, were the Egyptians ever again a problem for Israel? God did it!

Mathews then writes, 'God is certainly in control, but He has tasked us to fight for what is right, as Jesus did.' Again... Really!? Is that what Jesus did, fight for what is right? Then he writes, 'But some people honestly believe that nothing will affect them, because, "God is in control." God was in control during the Holocaust, too.' No genuine believer thinks that nothing will affect them but we do know, with certainty that God really is in control... even as He was during the favorite example of those who like to doubt God's absolute Sovereignty: the Holocaust.

This guy is so full of liberal christian claptrap... all the sayings and ideas of the apostatizing, modern church of Laodicea.

He writes, 'Prayer is not enough. When Jesus went to the Cross, he prayed at Gethsemane. But then He acted, doing His Father's will. Action is necessary.' That really has to be the stupidest thing I've read for some time... Jesus prayed and then He acted... the truth is, Jesus prayed and then He submitted Himself to the Father's Will but also He submitted Himself unto the will of the governing authorities through whom God, the Father, would bring about His perfect will, the Crucifixion of His Son to take our place for our sin: 'the Lamb of God, slain from the foundation of the World.' Rev 13:8

*He has committed to us the word of Reconciliation.
Therefore, we are Ambassadors for Christ.*

2 Corinthians 5:19,20

He continues, 'Action is necessary. Something. Anything... I know that my smart, outstanding Christian friends mean well when they try to calm me down, but seriously, "Be anxious for nothing" (Phppns 4:6) is not a strategy.' No, actually, 'Be anxious for nothing' is absolutely a strategy! It is the command of God but I understand, modern christians always know better than God. What a silly christian! Perhaps he believes the best course of action for a Christian is to run around crying, 'The sky is falling!'

All of these things which terrify M.B.Mathews are, in fact, true aspects of the Left's strategy for the destruction of this Nation but our fear and trepidation will do nothing to change the hearts of their determined target.

Here is the simplest way to view the evil which really is the American and International 'Left.' And it is more than high time we faced the fact that the Left really is Evil incarnate.

Lucifer/Satan is the god of this world. Since the time of his fall, of which we read in Isaiah 14, his plan has been to rule the world as its god and to, in fact, be like God, Himself. 'How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!' <sup>13</sup> For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:' <sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. <sup>15</sup> Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.'

When Satan tempted Jesus He said, as he showed Him all the kingdoms of the World, 'All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.' Luke 4:1 Notice that Jesus did not contradict him at all; that authority was delivered unto him and it will only be removed when the Lord Jesus Christ returns at Armageddon at the end of the 7-year Tribulation.

Satan's plans and desires have never changed... he has been planning his world-wide kingdom since the beginning. He has been giving the power and authority over nations to the men and women who have agreed to fall down and worship him. Those people fill leadership positions around the World today and they are waiting for the moment that they can rush in, giving their authority to the Antichrist, in order to fill the void which will be left when the Holy Spirit removes His restraint of Evil which will happen after the Lord Jesus Christ comes down into the clouds to call up, to Himself, all true Christians from the entire time of the Church, at the Rapture.

We see this, prophetically, in Psalm 2:1 'Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?' <sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, 3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.'

What so many refuse to believe is that many in leadership of this nation, especially on the Left, are, in fact, fully in league with the kingdom of darkness. Ask yourself: would any sane, normal, good person hate true Christians with a passion? Would they take as their most cherished convictions, the absolute celebration of the filthy lifestyle of modern promiscuous homosexuals who, alone, are the cause of the encroaching 'Monkey Pox' pestilence or the heinous sexual grooming of children, as young as 3, through transsexualism and the glorification of 'Drag Queen Storytime' at schools and libraries or the promotion of war between the races and the classes and so much more... would any good person embrace these things? Answer it!!! Would they???

I guess you have your answer even though many would want to deny it.

Let's go back to, 'Jesus prayed and then He acted.' The modern 'liberal' church loves to claim that Jesus came to serve the poor, as if that were His purpose. No, He didn't! He came to give His life as a ransom for many, of whom the poor were just one part. They say, 'We should serve the poor like Jesus did!' while no one pushes back. After all, who would denigrate the poor!?

They look to His miracles and claim they were all targeted to the poor or the downtrodden... no, they weren't.

When Jesus hung on the Cross, He said, 'It is finished.' What was finished? That He fully paid for our sin? Yes, obviously but there was more. Time and time again, it is written that what He did was done to fulfill prophecy. After His Resurrection, He said, 'And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures...' Luke 24:44

Every one of His miracles were to fulfill some Old Testament Prophecy. He didn't heal the man born blind because he was poor, He healed him in fulfillment of Isaiah 61 and Luke 4: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, <sup>19</sup>To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.' Did Jesus say anything about healing the poor or serving the poor or celebrating the poor? He came to preach the Gospel to the poor! But to preach the Gospel to the poor is the last thing on the minds of so many liberal christians... why is that?

It's because the Gospel demands repentance and faith in Jesus Christ's finished work alone... both from the hearer but also from the teller. They don't want to submit to trusting in Jesus Christ alone. They want to think they can gain Heaven by their many good works such as servicing the poor.

But God said that He views their vaunted good works as nothing better than filthy rags and if you were to search out the Hebrew words used in Isaiah 64 to describe their good works being as filthy rags, you'd find, to your embarrassment, that the Hebrew words mean: a stained menstrual rag along with treachery and deceit! Wow! Imagine that! Their filthy rags which they imagine are good works are the cause of treachery and deceit! Do you know why? The lie of the social gospel, loving and serving our city, loving and serving the poor is a doctrine of demons; it is the most effective lie from Satan's throne. First, it acts as the excuse to never really give out the Gospel, the True Gospel, because their pride is puffed and stroked by the lie that 'In feeding the poor, I've done enough... I've 'lived' the gospel, I've been the hands and feet of Jesus!' and that lie then treacherously deceives their own hearts that they have done enough for their own salvation. Here, then, is the fine line between Godly good works and Satanic good works: If the good works are done in order to present the Gospel, that is good. If the 'good works' are done so that the conscience is salved so that the offensive Gospel need not interfere... that is Satanic deception and that is, sadly, very often the case. Our original writer, here, demanded that we do something about the terrible danger of the democrats, that prayer is never enough. The commands we've been given, as true believers, are to 'pray without ceasing' 1Thes 5:17, to 'Be careful (anxious) for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phpp 4:6, to go into all the World and preach the Gospel Mark 16:15, to submit to the governing authorities Rom. 13:1 and then to: 'Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.' Prov 3:5 This Nation is being destroyed; there is nothing to be done about it if it is, in fact, according to God's will which, I believe, it most certainly is. God is the One Who is bringing forth Jesus Christ's 1000 year Kingdom on Earth. But for that time to come, the kingdom of darkness must, first, be given its full reign in the 7-year kingdom of the Antichrist during the Tribulation immediately following the Rapture of the Church. We can not change God's plans or His timing... but we can 'Trust God, stand still and see the Salvation of our God!' There is no time, place or event over which He is not in complete control!
